

A Valley of a Shadow of Death

I talked with a lady friend this week. She is diagnosed as having dementia. My friend is walking through a deep valley that is a shadow of death (Psalm 23:4). I have touched her head with the healing power of God's love. Abba's love has covered her brain and is radiating through her body. My friend is on a faith walk believing and proclaiming that God's love has already healed her brain. You are one of 86 people receiving this Friday Blessing. Pray that the healing of my friend's brain will be seen. As you pray, Abba Father will bless you, for the blessings you speak will return to you in multiple ways. Shalom!!
