

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Be Still . . .

Morning begins slowly quietly with the sun spreading its golden rays bountifully over the mountain tops painting the sky with the power of God's glory. A whispered voice says, "Be still and know that I am God." Selah

Suddenly, the air is filled with the sounds of explosions and chaos is fighting to be free. The earth seems to shake, and darkness tries to cover you. The whispered voice is heard again, "Be still and know that I am God." Selah

Your attention flees to the voice and a deep abiding peace wash over you enveloping you.

My child, my friend be blessed in the protective stillness of the Lord today. Psalm 46:10.

Shalom!!

Psalm 46:10, Psalm 42:7

Love Life Ministry

Touching People with the Healing Power of God's Love[©]

Scripture quoted or referenced is from The Holy Bible, New King James Version, Copyright © 1979, 1980, 1982, 1997 by Thomas Nelson, Inc. Used by Permission. All rights reserved