

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Doxology of Blessings

Doxology comes from two Ancient Greek words; doxa for glory, and logia for saying. Together it is vocal praising of God. King Jehoshaphat had three armies coming against him. He was told to go out toward the armies with singing and praising God. When the singing and praising began, God destroyed the armies. The City of Jericho was taken by Joshua's army with a great shout and blowing trumpets, which caused the city walls to fall. In a dark time, our emotional meter will go from negative to positive as we praise ABBA. Psalm 100 is a good kick start for praising the Lord. I bless you with this thought; all blessings flow from God, who is the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Praising Him brings blessings. Shalom!!

2 Chronicles 20:20-22, Psalm 100:1-5
