

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Lamp and Light

I awoke from a disturbing dream asking the LORD what it meant. Walking into my study, “My word is a lamp to your feet and a light to your path” came to my mind. Opening my Bible to Psalm 119:105, I read the scripture above. Then, I was led to Psalm 18:28, Proverbs 6:23, Psalm 27:1, and Job 29:3. These scriptures are about lamp and light in varying contexts. I meditated asking the LORD to teach me, and I saw His revelation. A single verse is a lamp to my feet, as a flashlight can illuminate a spot. Many verses together give light to my path, as a streetlight to a sidewalk. Selah

The question about my dream was not answered. Instead, I was shown not to be anxious about anything. Rather, talk to the LORD, requesting help and guidance. Then thank Him for what He gives. There is nothing you cannot master when you have the LORD’s help. He holds your right hand. Shalom!!

Psalm 119:105, Psalm 18:28, Proverbs 6:23, Psalm 27:1, Job 29:3, Isaiah 41:13

Love Life Ministry

Touching People with the Healing Power of God’s Love[©]

Scripture quoted or referenced is from The Holy Bible, New King James Version, Copyright © 1979, 1980, 1982, 1997 by Thomas Nelson, Inc. Used by Permission. All rights reserved