

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Rejoice for the Ending!

For most of my adult life it has been said, “We are living in the last days!” This statement refers to the second coming of Jesus, which will be a glorious event. The endings I look for and rejoice in are those that impact peoples’ lives for good. I rejoice in a person’s end to an addiction or sickness, the end of an abusive or separated marriage, the end of a child’s estrangement with a parent, the end of a person’s homelessness, and the end of lack in some deeply desired need. Abba Father rejoices for such endings because in order for them to happen, the person had to look to Jesus for the change. I speak blessings over you to end an issue with which you are struggling and rejoice with you. Shalom!!
