

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

The Lord is My Strength!

I love to read the blessings in Deuteronomy 28:2-13. Here is one that settled in my heart this week and I speak it over you. “Blessed shall you be when you come in and blessed shall you be when you go out.” You receive this blessing when you obey the voice of the Lord. When Lori Ann was five years old, I saw her struggling with something and said, “Let me help you.” She said, “Daddy, I rather do it myself!” I waited until she asked for my help. Then it was well with her. When we struggle with something not asking the Lord to help us, we hinder His blessings. Remember to ask the Lord for help and receive His blessings. Shalom!!
