

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Trust Knows the Way!

Tumultuous times cause us to lose our way and forget the One who knows the way out. When my children were young, we drove from Tennessee to West Virginia to visit their grandparents. A trip of 500 miles taking 10 hours. My daughter, Lori Ann, asked me several times, along the way, if we were there yet. I knew the way, where we were, and assured her we were almost there. My children relied upon me to know the way and get them safely to their grandparents. God wants us to rely upon Him, in these days, to get us through them. He knows the way and will keep us safe, while providing for us. You are blessed when you trust the Lord, for His ways never fail. He is the abundance of your needs. His perfect love casts out all fear. Look to God, your Father, to walk you through this tumultuous time. Shalom!!
