

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Trust Leads to Confidence

John 16:33 states we will have trouble in this world. Trouble comes in different forms, e.g., COVID-19, family member issues, spousal relationships, relatives in other states, neighbors, employer or employee issues, health issues; the list seems endless. But Jesus also says to be of good cheer because He has overcome the world.

I have learned that to have good cheer, in the face of trouble, I must see trouble as an opportunity to go to the LORD for help. To see Him as Jehovah-jireh, the LORD My Provider (Jeremiah 29:11). To lean confidently on Him, trusting that He will help me (Proverbs 3:5-6), provide for and guide me (Philippians 4:19), through the trouble to the point where He makes all of it work to my good (Romans 8:28).

Our challenge, and the path to being blessed, is to keep our focus on Jesus, not on what is happening around us. Whatever is troubling you now, I touch you with the healing and providing power of God's love, in Jesus' name! Shalom!!
