

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Trust and be Blessed!

When my son, Kevin, was three-years old morning came, he stood in his crib and said loudly, "Hey dad! I awake!" That was the beginning of our day together. I think of that time now in a different way. How often does anyone say, "Hey God! I awake!"

Days start differently for people. Some head quietly for coffee or dress for a run or wake up children for school or drive to work. Most are quickly busy, their feet hit the floor running as they begin circling the same mountains, forgetting the One who can make their paths straight and give answers that truly resolve problems. Selah

Know that you shall be blessed as you trust the Lord and feed on His faithfulness. Delight yourself in the Lord, and He shall give you the desires of your heart. Shalom!!

Psalm 37:3-4, Proverbs 3:5-6

Love Life Ministry

Touching People with the Healing Power of God's Love[©]

Scripture quoted or referenced is from The Holy Bible, New King James Version, Copyright © 1979, 1980, 1982, 1997 by Thomas Nelson, Inc. Used by Permission. All rights reserved