

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Occupy! PART 1

A week ago, I ask Abba why I was in Georgia. Monday past He replied, “Occupy!”. I asked the Holy Spirit to give me understanding for that direction. He replied, “Occupy until I come!” In Hebrew, occupy is to be a surety for another. In Greek, it is to carry on a business. As Believers in Jesus, we are a surety for another to teach them the Gospel. It is our business to love others as Jesus did and tell them the truth that assures them of an eternal life that is packed full of peace and love. We are to help others see that, in Jesus, now they can have a life of peace, love, and prosperity. I bless you with frequent opportunities to share the peace, love, and prosperity of Jesus with others. Shalom!!

Luke 19:13, Luke 10:1-12, 1 Peter 2:21-23
