

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Answering Your Calling

In “The Divine Romance,” by Gene Edwards, I read about Jesus leaving His carpenter shop to begin His ministry. Reading this account caused me to remember leaving my woodworking shop to attend Charis Bible College. I saw my experience in parallel with Jesus’ experience. In May 2008, as I read Psalm 71, I knew through verse 18 what Abba had called me to do. In my old age and gray head, He will keep me alive until I declare His strength to this generation and His power to all those who are to come.

Have you answered your calling? Everyone has come into this life with a calling. Do you know your calling? Seek Abba’s face. Ask Him to reveal His calling for you. When you recognize it, embrace it, and allow it to become real in your life. By doing this you will be exceedingly abundantly blessed. Shalom!!

Matthew 3:1-17, Psalm 71:18, 1 Corinthians 7:17, Ephesians 4:1-6
