

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Do Not Envy!

God's word has many references to envy. Paul, Peter, and James wrote about the dangers of envy. Envy is defined as "A feeling of discontent and resentment aroused by and in conjunction with desire for the possessions or qualities of another." Envy entered mankind when Adam and Eve ate what was not theirs to have. So, how do we not envy what someone else has? Focus your attention on Jesus and His love for you because love does not envy. How does one overcome envy with love? Compliment someone on what they have saying how beautiful it is or how well they did in creating it. Beloved, you shall be blessed by laying aside all malice, all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and all evil speaking. Love is the foundation for overcoming envy. Shalom!!

Genesis 3:6, 1 Corinthians 13:4, 1 Peter 2:1
