

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Nothing is Impossible!

For with God nothing will be impossible. Gabriel spoke those words to Mary, the mother of Jesus. The impossibility of something lies within our minds. A desired job, replacement of a house roof, healing of a sick child or our own body, restoration of a broken relationship, or any other want may carry with it a dark heavy cloud of impossibility. At times we turn away from what we want because it looks impossible, but when we turn our focus upon Abba and give Him what we want, the impossibility fades. When we believe in Abba's ability, we will have what we want or need. You shall be blessed when you do not cast away your confidence in God but endure until His promise is fulfilled. Shalom!!
