

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

We Shall Have What We Say!

Yesterday, Abba told me in a dream I would be lord over a manor. I was to speak increases into the manor. As I spoke increases began filling the manor. I continued speaking yet there was always space for more. Jesus said we will have what we say if we do not doubt. Apostle James said we do not have because we do not ask, or we do not receive because we ask amiss. Frequently, we ask selfishly. December 6, 2015, Abba said, “Ask me for a million-dollar house.” I said, “Ok I accept and ask You for a million-dollar house.” December 7, 2015, I dreamed that Sandra and I were going to an open house on Johnson Ferry Road, Marietta, GA. I did not tell Sandra, who drove past the house that day on her way shopping. Upon arriving home, Sandra told me about the house. I told her about the dream. We walked through the $1.2 million dollar house but did not buy it because we could not afford it and did not like the floor plan. With God all things are possible; therefore, I bless you with encouragement to ask Abba boldly for what He wants to give you and say what you want to have. Shalom!!
