

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Testing. . . Test. . . Test. . . Testing!

I heard that cadence many times in my life before a speaker began a public address. There is another type of testing. It comes to our mind from our enemy, the Satan. His test often focuses on our relationships and finances because he knows those areas hit our emotions the hardest. Satan roams around like a roaring lion seeking those from whom he may steal their peace or lead them to make wrong decisions that destroy a relationship or their finances or lead them to take their own life. When Satan sees Jesus at home in our lives, he leaves for a more opportune time. If Jesus is not an active part of our life, Satan's testing begins. We must decide to whom we will listen—Jesus or Satan, which is life and death respectively. Choose life!! I bless you with the healing power of Abba's love to restore a broken relationship or provide sufficient finances for your needs and wants. Shalom!!
