

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

God's Will or My Will?

When Elohim created Adam, he was given freedom of choice. That freedom dwells within each of us. It is our free-will, which is very great and intense. While the power of God's love is greater and more intense than our free will, it will not interfere with our decision. In order for God's power of love to touch our lives, we must consent to allow it. Our consent is given as we work out God's will for our life. What is God's will for us? To do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with Him. To know that apart from Him we can do nothing. Therefore, we are to ask to be filled, seek to find, and knock to be received. I bless you with a strong desire to relinquish your will thus consenting to have God's will so you can have an abundant life. Shalom!!
