

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Tend My Sheep!

John 21:16 (NKJV) could be read as a call to serve God through Jesus, but it is not. In that verse, Jesus asks Peter if he loves Him. Then Jesus tells Peter to tend His sheep. Our service is to other people, which is done through our love for Jesus. We are to see people through the eyes of Jesus. Our acts toward another can be simple. My son, Kevin, gave a hitchhiker a ride. Learning of his circumstances Kevin gave him $20, all the money he had. My daughter, Lori Ann, took a child, who has a rare skin affliction that impaired her growth, into her ballet school without charge. The years of disciplined exercise and training improved the quality of the child's life. Today, the child is a young adult who was awarded third place overall in the American Dance Championships. You may have similar experiences. We are not to serve God. We cannot give to Him anything more than our love. Therefore, He channels the love He bestows upon us to another person through us. You are blessed with a desire to see people through Jesus' eyes, follow His guidance to help them, and watch His blessings come upon them. Shalom!!
