

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Reconciled to God!

Discord has been with mankind since Cain took offense at Abel's sacrifice to God. God clearly told Cain what and how to give his sacrifice so it would be accepted. Cain's arm of violence rose up against Abel. Cain lived with a mantle of murder heavily burdened by anxiety and shame. Prevalent discordance is a result of people not being reconciled to God. Discordance runs rampant today on national news, in all states, in cities, and in neighborhoods. The Pied Piper of discordance is Satan. Each believer in Jesus is a minister of reconciliation. Rescuing someone from discordance happens one person at a time through Jesus. No one can reconcile with another person on their own effort. All reconciliation is God-led and God-worked. Each of us must abandon our way in order to be reconciled and to help others to be reconciled. Meaningful reconciliation to God brings life renewal. Beloved, bless someone by ministering the Spirit of life to them. Your blessing will make room for you. Shalom!!
