

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Have a Heart that Wins!

Our heart, both physical and spiritual, goes with us throughout life on this earth. It goes through everything and anything the world throws at us. But those who dwell in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty, who is their refuge and fortress (Psalm 91:1-2 NKJV). We encounter routine drudgery and dreary days that hang over us like a dark cloud.

When the daily battle has us in a battle-weary state, the routine drudgery and dreary days can bring our flesh and heart to a point of failure. As we look up to the heavenly hills, God becomes the strength of our heart (Psalm 121:1-8, Psalm 73:26). Trying to figure out what to do brings emotional strain and moves us out of faith. We only need enough faith to say, “Jesus, I cannot, but you can! Thank you for your help!” With that simple statement, our heart will soar like an eagle. We will continue to try without being weary. We will work through the failure without falling (Isaiah 40:29-31).

Beloved, there is nothing going to happen today, this week, month, or year that you and ABBA cannot handle. With Him at your side, just look and see Him there now; you can do all things through Christ Jesus who is your strength (Philippians 4:13). Shalom!!
