

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

LORD, What Moves You?

Mary showed humble devotion to Jesus by anointing his feet with costly spikenard oil (John 12:3-8 NKJV). Peter laid down his fishing life for Jesus and took up his calling to teach and preach (John 21:15-19). Moses sang a victory song glorifying God for saving the Israelites from death and slavery under the crushing hand of Pharaoh (Exodus 15:1-18) After teaching a multitude, Jesus sat down. Children ran to Him. He gathered them onto His lap, beside Him, and on His back. A girl led her blind little sister to Jesus, who smiled, reached down and lifted the child to His lap. Placing his hand over her eyes, He said, "Receive your sight." The little sister looked into Jesus' face with large black iris eyes, gave Him a big smile and said, "I can see!" Jesus hugged her and placed her on her feet. She and her sister ran to their parents, shouting my sister could see. A boy walking with a crutch approached Jesus, who looked at him, smiled, and said, "Give Me your crutch." As the boy handed his crutch to Jesus, he felt his lame foot strengthen. He stepped to Jesus, hugged Him, and said, "Thank you!" Then turned and ran to his parents on two firm feet.

Jesus' disciples tried to stop the children from coming, but He said, "Let them come!" Then, He told the multitude they must receive the kingdom of God as a little child if they wanted to enter it. The innocence of a child's heart moves the LORD (Mark 10:13-16).

Beloved, bring to God your hurts, failures, cares, sickness, and financial lack with a child's heart. He will see your heart and work all things for your good. Shalom!!
