

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Totally Surrendered!

God is eternal! He is LORD who was and is and is to come! Yet, He became less than He is by giving Himself in His person of Jesus. He became lower than He is by coming into this world to be more than we are for our good.

Would anyone who has everything stolen, whose family another has ravished, whose children another has sold into slavery give themselves to pay the sentenced penalty for the person who did it all?

God so loved humanity that He totally surrendered Himself in His love for us by giving Himself in His Son Jesus for payment of our inherited sin (John 3:17 NKJV). Rather than condemn humanity with eternal death, He gave His one and only begotten Son! (John 3:16). Everyone who believes in His Son shall not perish but live with Him for eternity.

Beloved, God's love compelled Him to buy back his beloved humanity through the sacrifice of His Son, Jesus. Satan brought the impending eternal death through the inherited sin. The sacrifice of Jesus was not too much for God to pay for our inherited sin. That is how much God loves you and me! Now, we should surrender ourselves to Him (Mark 10:28-31).

Shalom!!
