

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

What To Do With What We Hear

It is stage-four cancer! If we do not pay our credit card debt, we lose our house! You got a zero in math! I am here to repossess your car! Your work is below expectations!

Such statements can be fact. They can happen, but are they the eventual outcome? God's word counters the world's half-truths. Death and life are in the tongue's power (Proverbs 18:21, NKJV). People asked Jesus what they had to do to do the works of God. He replied, "Believe in Him whom He sent." (John 6:27-29). When we believe, accept, and speak a medical report of potential death, we will die. I have seen it happen six times. When we believe something is impossible to do, we forget nothing is impossible for God (Mark 10:27). We must pay for all we owe; therefore, owing nothing to anyone except love (Romans 13:7-8). We should perform our work heartily as to the LORD and not men, knowing the LORD will reward us (Colossians 3:23-24).

Beloved, you can count on the world to tell you something that will instill fear and defeat and take you into depression. Romans 8:39 tells us that nothing can separate us from God. Therefore, in fear, defeat, or depression, you can ask Him to provide all you need. He will provide it out of His riches in glory through your personal relationship with Jesus (Philippians 4:19). Only believe that the Creator and Ruler of the universe and all that is in it will meet any need you bring to Him (Psalm 115:2, 33:6-8. Job 26:7).

Shalom!!
