

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

A Small Beginning!

Sometimes, with good intentions, we repeatedly ask God to help us with something. We expect him to give us what we ask for in its complete form. I am an example of preparing the Friday Blessing. Each week, I ask Abba for the blessing he wants to give. Sometimes it comes as a complete package. Oh, but other times it is only a word. Nothing more comes until I step out in faith using that word. It is a small beginning. Zechariah 4:10 (NKJV) tells us never to despise small beginnings.

I have learned to begin with what is small, expecting that my faith in Abba will bring the rest. To his glory, Abba has never failed me. Last Friday's blessing began with the word "commitment." After I wrote that word on paper, a flood came, bringing the rest. I stopped and praised my Abba after I completed that blessing. Immediately, today's blessing came through a downpour of thoughts and words. Before I had distributed last Friday's blessing, Abba gave me today's blessing. Hallelujah!! Praise Jesus!!

Beloved, do not be afraid to start with a small beginning. God told Job though his beginning was small, yet his latter end would increase abundantly. (Job 8:7) Your small beginning may be a thought, a heartfelt desire, a word, or something you see. Commit to the Lord what you have. He will do the rest to complete it! (Proverbs 16:3) Shalom!!
