

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

My Shepherd!

The Lord Jesus is my Shepherd! He enters by the door of my heart. Those who come by the world's avenues are thieves. They come to steal from me and try to kill or destroy me. But my ears hear the voice of my Shepherd. In his lush green prosperity, he gives me rest. Through his rivers of living water comes my refreshment. My Shepherd's blood gives me right standing with God, my Father, for he sees the blood on his mercy seat. He gives me all this for his name's sake.

When I unknowingly put myself in danger of failure or death, Jesus is with me. He walks beside me removing all fear with his perfect love. Therefore, he is my fortress and refuge. No terror, weapon, plague, pestilence, or destruction will come to me. Jesus' rod and staff comforts and protects me.

Even though my enemies of humanity encircle me his angels surround me. Abiding in Jesus I am at peace eating from the table he prepared for me in the presence of my enemies. My enemies watch fearfully as Jesus anoints my head with the oil of joy and gladness. The cup from which I drink overflows with the power of his love.

Beloved, let there be no doubt that Jesus' goodness and mercy will follow and surround you all the days of your life on earth. Therefore, you and your family shall dwell in the house of Jesus forever! Shalom!!
