

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

God, Himself!

“I myself shall search for my sheep and seek them out.” (Ezekiel 34:11, NKJV). “He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor; therefore, his own arm brought salvation for him; and his own righteousness, it sustained him.” (Isaiah 59:16). “Thus says the LORD, your redeemer, and he who formed you from the womb: ‘I am the LORD, who makes all things, who stretches out the heavens all alone, who spreads abroad the earth by myself.’” (Isaiah 44:24). “I am the LORD who heals you.” (Exodus 15:26)

Beloved, there was no man without inherited sin, for we all fall short of God’s glory (Romans 3:23). Therefore, God, who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; yet One divested himself of his divinity and entered the body of flesh he put into Mary’s womb (Luke 1:28-38). Thus, he was born a man named Jesus who came to take away the inherited sins of the world (John 1:29). Daily, we ask God to give us something. The greatest gift God gave us is himself in Jesus. For this gift alone, we should seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness. God already knows the desires and needs we hold in our hearts and in our thoughts. When we make God himself our daily focus, rather than asking for something, he gives our desires and needs to us. (Matthew 6:33). Shalom!!
