

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Be Totally Free!

Freedom is a gift that God gave us by sacrificing his son, Jesus Christ, on the cross to pay for our sins. This payment frees us from all past, present, and future sins (Galatians 1:4, NKJV). The moment we accept Jesus into our lives, our spirit is saved, and one-third of our being is free. However, our mind and body, which make up the remaining two-thirds of our being, still struggle to be free (1 Thessalonians 5:23).

To achieve total freedom, we must first acknowledge that we were crucified with Christ. By accepting our crucifixion with Christ, we no longer live for ourselves, but Jesus lives in us (Galatians 2:20). Our new life becomes one with Jesus in everything we do and all we say (John 15:5).

Even though we live in a fleshly body, we don't live to meet our own demands or those of the world. Instead, we trust that Jesus is the one who meets all our needs (Philippians 4:19).

Living with Jesus sets us free completely, and we experience an abundant life filled with peaceful rest in our minds and bodies. It is only through this restful peace that we can fulfill God's plan and purpose for our lives (Jeremiah 29:11). Shalom!
