

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

A Long Silence!

“I gave you a tree of life. You chose a tree of knowledge accepting its good and evil. I cleansed your earth with water giving humanity a new beginning. You chose to worship what I created instead of me. I called forth faithful men in Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Instead, you declared to do all I asked, so I gave you my perfect law. Through the ages, I forgave your failures, fed you in the wilderness, sent many prophets to warn and teach you. Your rejections of me continued. I exiled you and ruled over you through tyrants, but few returned to me. Your arrogance, ignorance, complacency, and selfishness brought silence to my lips. Even in my four hundred years of silence, I loved you and wanted to help you, but your hearts and minds were brass. You claim to be grown up and demand to have your own way, but you are children not knowing their right from their left. I will send you the Sun of Righteousness. He has healing in his wings (Malachi 4:2, NKJV). I will give fathers a heart for their children and their hearts will be for their fathers (Malachi 4:6). I will send you my ultimate gift! Behold, it shall come!! Seek it!!!”

signed, God, your ABBA Father.

Shalom!!
