

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

The Light of the World!

The Ultimate Gift is the Light of the World! (John 8:12, NKJV). We just celebrated Christmas. The Ultimate Gift was given to all humanity on that day.

As a child, I, like many children today, saw Santa Claus as one who brings gifts. I, too, was excited about his coming. Then, I became a man and put away childish things (1 Corinthians 13:11). Today, I see the red color of Santa's suit as the blood of Jesus. The white trim is God's purity. His white hair and beard show wisdom. And his large round belly is God's unending provision. But he is not the Light that came into the world.

Christmas to many children is but another day in want because they live in poverty or with alcoholic or drugged parents who neglect them. Neither the children nor parents know the Light of the world. They live in darkness, unable to comprehend the Light (John 1:5).

Beloved, we are the light to shine for God (Matthew 5:14-16). As God leads you, help a child to know the Light. His name is Jesus. A personal relationship with Jesus will change a child's life for the good forever!
Shalom!!
