

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

His Mercy Endures Forever!

Regardless of how slightly we have turned away from the Lord or how long we have stayed away when we return to him, he is merciful (Psalm 51, 57, and 136, NKJV).

We turn away from the Lord when we allow things to trouble us. It could be some demand put on us by another person. Many obligations we have not completed plague our minds. Some spousal and child responsibilities flare up when we are pressured to meet obligations. We become offended by what someone did or said to us not just recently, but many years ago. The addiction to alcohol or drugs has invaded our bodies. Under these conditions, our focus is not on Jesus, our Savior, and Lord. Instead, we are running in circles, trying to put out the fiery darts of Satan.

Beloved, you cannot put out the fiery darts of Satan that appear as demands! You can do nothing apart from Jesus (John 15:5).

Returning to him brings his mercy upon you. It washes away the stress and anguish caused by the demands. In his mercy, you will have his grace to complete all demands and forgive all offenses. Life on this earth is short. You are to enjoy peace and rest every day.

Walking with Jesus fills your day with his love, peace, and joy while you are handling demands and speaking forth forgiveness. Because Jesus is grace his mercy for you endures forever. Return to him in all areas of your life and enjoy living.

Shalom!!
