

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Returning to Me...!

The Israelites moved their confidence from God to Egypt. Their action is similar to ours when we have confidence in the world's counsel rather than God's. In Isaiah 30:15 (AMP) God is calling Israel back to him saying, "In returning (to Me) and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and confident trust is your strength." In this verse, God tells the Israelites he will give them rest and save them from their fears, concerns, and worries.

Beloved, the Israelites were not willing to return to God. In your time of trouble, I pray you will turn to Jesus giving him your fears, concerns, worries, and the disappointment and anger held against someone. In the place of those troubles, God will give you quietness and confidence. Satan rules this world. Jesus defeated him and is greater than he. Therefore, Jesus saves all who come to him spiritually, emotionally, and physically. If you have turned from God most slightly, return to him and see your life become bright, peaceful, and restful.
Shalom!!
