

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Being Transformed!

When we look in a mirror, we see the reflection of our face. No one can change their face. But everyone can change the reflection of their face. Some faces reflect anger, hatred, and even evil. Other faces reflect love, peace, and a depth of joy (2 Corinthians 3:18, NKJV).

God's word does not change our face, but it can change our minds. When a person's mind changes, the reflection of their face changes (Romans 12:2).

Elohim created humanity to be in the image of his moral, spiritual, and intellectual nature. We are like God in form and in his spiritual capacity. The Hebrew word for image is tselem, meaning related to nature, the immaterial part of man (Romans 8:29).

Beloved, reading, hearing, and meditating on God's word brings the glory of the Lord, God's glory of Christlikeness to all who believe (1 John 3:2-3). Our continued focus on the Lord Jesus allows the Holy Spirit to transform the reflection of our face from bad to good. When we allow the Holy Spirit to transform our minds, we will hear people say, "Jesus is all over you!" Some people will turn from you and others will turn to you. The latter shall be the greater.

Shalom!!
