

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

My Peace I Give!

Jesus said he gives us his peace (John 14:27, NKJV). I want you to see the power of his blessing. The peace he gives is his, for he said it is “My peace.” His peace includes wholeness, completeness, soundness, health, safety, prosperity, and salvation. From the scripture, we know it is Jesus’ peace. We also know what is in his peace. I want you to see how he gives his peace. The Greek word for give is didomi, which is used many ways. It conveys something from someone to another. It also means to make something. Jesus is Elohim, the Creator. Therefore, he creates his peace in you. The world cannot create peace, which is why he said, “not as the world gives do I give to you.”

Beloved, we do not have to live with fear and worry or physical and mental sickness. When we accept peace from Jesus, he creates peace in our minds and bodies; comforting and assuring us he can heal and provide for us. After Jesus added his saliva to dirt and made mud, he placed it on the face of a man born without eyes. When the man washed the mud away, he had eyes with which to see (John 9:6-7). With each piece of bread and fish, Jesus broke from the five loaves and two fish; he created more, giving it to the disciples for the people (Matthew 14:19-20). Accepting peace from Jesus is your decision. Please do not hesitate. His peace will change your life forever!
Shalom
