

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Whatever You Do Shall Prosper

An enormous advantage for one who is born again is the blessing recorded in Psalm 1:3: “Whatever they do shall prosper.” Everyone has a desire to prosper, which is to receive an abundance from their efforts. It does not matter how much we have; we want more. This desire is the driving factor for the decisions we make. Therefore, the root of our decision must connect to God, who alone can make us prosperous.

Beloved, our ways of becoming prosperous will not be completely successful. God’s ways will bring exceedingly abundant success because his ways are higher than ours (Isaiah 55:9, NKJV). “The blessing of the LORD makes us rich, and he does not add sorrow to it” (Proverb 10:22). God makes his grace abound toward us, giving all we need in abundance (2 Corinthians 9:8). God tells us we should remember him because it is he who gives us the power to get wealth (Deuteronomy 8:18). To confirm this, he tells us in Job 36:11, if we obey his guidance, we shall spend our days in prosperity and live our years in pleasures. We usually want prosperity in wealth, health, and marriage (1 John 3:21-23).

Therefore, it is wise for each person to accept Jesus as their Savior and identify with him because he alone is the true source of all prosperity.

Shalom
