

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

The Most Wonderful Gift Ever Given-Part 1

Behind an invisible membrane that separates the spiritual and physical realms and through which no human can see or hear stood the Father, embracing his Son. He was sending his Son to earth as the only redemption gift that could save the children Elohim created. They were children he loved and for whom he wanted to provide everything. The Godhead was saving his children from themselves. Four thousand years ago, the first man, Adam, disobeyed his heavenly father's instruction not to eat the fruit growing on the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Adam's disobedience gave all humanity an inherited sin. Only the precious, sinless Son of the Godhead could take away that sin.

In the time before Christ and the birth of our Lord, people lived in the darkness of religious idolatry, continually walking under the shadow of death. Adam's disobedience gripped Elohim's entire creation in a state of corruption. Suddenly, a light gathered in the heavens above the earth as the stars came together at Godhead's call. This light was so brilliant that Pluto kissed Venus and Saturn danced with Jupiter while asteroids displayed their colorful tails across the sky. Jubilation rang forth throughout the cosmos for Godhead's Son's soon appearance. The corruption of creation would soon end. This aerial show was the most glorious human eyes had ever seen. Though the people sat in darkness, the Godhead brought them light. It was a light for the path the shepherds in the pastures would walk to the manger and for the Magi's journey. It is a lamp for the feet of every man, woman, and child, and a light for their path.

Beloved, the light overpowered Satan's darkness, causing it to flee screaming as it ran because it was evil in all its ways and could not stand to see Godhead's light. Instantly, Satan's knees bow, and his tongue confesses, Jesus is Lord, the light of the world. As every person walks with Jesus, the light of the world, they have fellowship with one another and the blood of Jesus cleanses them from all sin. Those who see Jesus as the light of the world also know him as their salvation. There is nothing for which they must fear. If you are a believer in Jesus and have accepted him as your Savior and Lord, give thanks to God for his indescribable gift. If you have not accepted Jesus as your Savior and Lord, I pray you will allow God's indescribable gift to come into your mind and heart.

May your Christmas glow with the Light of the world in your eyes and home. Shalom!!
