

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Who Is Our Anointer?

"My children, what do you seek? Do not grope in the world's darkness. Come to my light. Come to my love. When you accept Jesus, my Son, you have accepted me. I dwell in your body by my Spirit, who is your anointing and teaches you all you need to know (1 John 2:27 NKJV). The world knows many things because I have given those in it the knowledge. But the world does not know me, El Elyon, The God Most High (Psalm 82:6). Bring me what you receive from the world. I will teach you the truth about what the world gives you. Share with me your concerns, troubles, and problems. I will comfort you and guide you in the way you should go. My way is opposite the world's way. In the world, you want to see before you believe. My way is to believe before you see. I know all and see all; therefore, I can do what is impossible for the world. While I live in your body with you, I cannot help you without you having faith in me and trusting me," says El Elyon (Proverbs 3:5).

Beloved, rather than struggle to live in peace, get enough money to pay your bills, fight against your sickness, or win someone's love and support, seek God and His righteousness. Then God can give you all you need. Acknowledge God and He shall direct your paths, for it is the Holy Spirit who anoints you (Proverbs 3:6). Shalom!!
