

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

The Enduring Presence of God!

Before God came to earth as Jesus in the body of a man, he wanted humanity to know that his presence would always be with us. He would never leave us nor forsake us (Deuteronomy 31:8, NKJV). Knowing we would struggle daily with trouble; God reminded us that in his presence, we should not be afraid because he would be with us. Neither are we to be anxious because he is our God, and he promised to strengthen and help us. While we may not feel it, his righteous right hand holds ours (Isaiah 41:10). Because God so loved all humanity, he wrote in Psalm 139:7-10, that there is no place we can go to be away from his presence. Going into heaven, he is there! If we go into hell, he is there! Riding on the wings of the morning or dwelling in the extreme parts of the ocean to avoid him, he is there and his hand shall lead us. Even darkness cannot cover us because he can make the night light, preventing us from hiding. Yes, God loved humanity so much that he gave his beloved son, Jesus, to redeem us from our inherited sin (John 3:16).

However, those who have not accepted Jesus cover their minds with a veil of disbelief, thus allowing Satan to blind them. In that state, the light of the glory of Christ Jesus does not shine on them (2 Corinthians 4:3-4). They have chosen poorly. However, when the Holy Spirit convicts them of their sin and they repent and believe in the name of Jesus, the veil over their minds will depart and their
