

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Jesus Takes Our Burdens!

There are days when we have helped others who were physically weak or struggling emotionally, or became weary from demands and financial hardship. Then a heavy sorrow or difficult emotional strain, or an encounter with an oppressive physical or spiritual attack, came to us. It seemed we were sitting in darkness, in the very shadow of death, crying, as did Job, "I am not at ease, nor am I quiet. I have no rest, for trouble comes (Job 3:26, NKJV). Our crying seemed to hit gates of brass and walls of iron because no relief came. Jesus experienced such a time when his enemies falsely arrested and tried him. His flesh was torn from his body. His executioners nailed his body to a cross. In deep anguish, he cried out, "My God, My God, why have you forsaken me?" (Matthew 27:46). We, too, cry out in deep anguish, but God is not far. He is in our anguish with us. Jesus takes our sorrows and griefs when we give them to him because he cares about us and loves us (1 Peter 5:7). When we cry out to the Lord in our troubles, he is big enough to deliver us out of our darkness and break the gates of brass and walls of iron. He comforts our minds and fills our bodies with goodness because he is Jehovah Jireh, the Lord who provides (Psalm 107:1-15, Genesis 22:14). Give your burdens to Jesus. He will fix them! (Matthew 11:28).

Shalom!!
