

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Contentment!

Are you content or worried? Are you in a state of happiness or in mental distress about the sickness you carry or that of your spouse, unable to pay bills, or a broken relationship that will not mend? You may think, "How can I be happy when my body hurts, or I have no money, or no one cares about me?" There is someone who cares about you! His name is Jesus. He healed a woman who bled for twelve years and made eyes for a man born without them (Luke 8:41-48, John 9:1-7, NKJV). He fed fifteen thousand men, women, and children with five loaves of bread and two fish (Mark 6:32-44). Jesus told Peter that the first fish he caught would have money in its mouth enough to pay both their taxes (Matthew 17:24-27). Now, by faith in Jesus, he provides all your wants and needs (Psalm 23:1, Philippians 4:19). Jesus restored a broken relationship by raising a widow's son for her, and a man who was the brother of two sisters (Luke 7:11-15, John 11:38-44). God sees the desires of your heart, and he wants to meet them. When we set aside our free will, taking faith in him, he meets the faith we have in him, giving us our wants and needs. We do not have to accept things as they are. Just believe and be content that God cannot fail (Hebrews 13:5-6).
Shalom!!
