

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

There Is No Demand!

God makes no demands of us. By nature, he is love. Because he loves, he is not rude toward us. He does not seek his own will to be done against our free will. Neither does he provoke us, nor think evil toward us (1 Corinthians 13:5, NKJV). God's nature cannot bring him to think evil. When God sees us troubled, he does not mock us as others do. Instead, he calls us to come to him when we are tired, afraid or carrying much worry. Particularly in those times, God wants to give us rest (Matthew 11:28-30). As our ABBA Father, God wants to teach us his ways, for they are higher than our ways (Isaiah 55:8-9). God desires to lift us out of our misery and show us his gentleness (Psalm 18:35). He does not demand that we strive to keep the Ten Commandments. He sent Jesus to fulfill those commandments and all that the prophets had spoken (Matthew 5:17). Instead, God gave us his grace through Jesus, his son (John 1:16-17). Therefore, we should give thanks to the LORD, for he is good! His chesed or lovingkindness and loyalty to us endures forever (1 Chronicles 16:34). Do not receive the world's demands or seek its ways, for in them you will become exceedingly troubled and full of fear (Romans 12:2, 1 John 2:15-17, James 4:4). Jesus is waiting to embrace you. Receive him! Shalom!!
