

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Guidance From Within!

As most people do, I, in my past years, sought guidance from others whom I thought possessed good worldly experience. Because I followed that guidance, I looked like a fool who had no sense. Proverbs 17:28 (NKJV) taught me that a fool seems wise when he keeps his mouth shut but removes all doubt when he speaks. My next action was to undo what I had done, which usually made the situation worse. Often, I found that my solution to my problem became my next problem. I was a slow learner because it took many years for me to find the best source of guidance. One day, the Lord spoke to my mind, saying, “You always do what others tell you to do. Some tell you I told them to tell you to do it. Stop doing what others tell you to do and come to me for guidance.” The Lord confirmed His counsel to me in Proverbs 20:24: “A man’s steps are of the LORD; how then can a man understand his own way?” I inquired of the Lord why coming to Him was the right way. He reminded me I was a spirit made in His image; thus, I am a lamp of His, and He searches the inner depths of my heart (Proverbs 20:27). The Holy Spirit, who lives with us in our spirit, counsels us that when we lack wisdom, we ask God (James 1:5). When we live our lives being guided by the Holy Spirit, it shows we are children of God (Romans 8:14). I assure you that your life will become exceedingly blessed when you seek guidance from the Holy Spirit. If Jesus is not your Savior, your first action is to accept Him. He will give you the Holy Spirit (John 14:15-17). Shalom!!
