

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

God's Word Alone Gives a Fulfilling Life!

Everyone has experienced unfulfillment in their life. Whether you are rich or living in poverty, you can tell your story of unfulfillment. No one is exempt from unfulfillment because Satan is the author. He points out areas of our lives, giving us his thought that we should have more. We pursue those thoughts only to find them empty of fulfillment. Pursuing Satan's thoughts is acting outside of faith in God. When we do that, we fall short of God's glory (Romans 3:23, NKJV). When we pursue God by reading and hearing His word, He sees we trust Him and fills us with His joy, peace and hope (Romans 15:13). As we walk in faith with God, he gives us a fulfilled life because he provides our fulfillment through His supply (Philippians 4:19). Therefore, it is foolish to pursue Satan's thoughts to get fulfillment. Going his way leads only to emptiness. Jesus answered Satan's temptations offered to Him by speaking God's word. We can answer Satan's temptations by speaking God's word (Matthew 4:1-11). To whom are you listening to be fulfilled, Satan or Jesus? It is your choice; therefore, choose wisely (Proverbs 4:5-9).
Shalom!!
