

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

The Power of a Baby

Can a woman forget her nursing child and not have compassion on the son of her womb? (Isaiah 49:15, NKJV). It took only one look at the five-day-old boy to fill my heart with the love of a father. Fatherless and rejected by his mother, he became mine for life. She wept often because she was barren and vowed to give her firstborn to the LORD. A year later, Hannah had a son, named him Samuel and placed him at the temple as a priest who served God by ministering to His people (1 Samuel 1:9-28). Manoah and his wife prayed continually to have a child. The Angel of the LORD visited his wife to tell her she would have a son. They named him Samson. He became a judge for God's people (Judges 13 through 16). Zacharias was an elderly priest, and his wife Elizabeth was barren. In the Holy of Holies, the archangel Gabriel told him he would have a son. He doubted and became mute until his son John was born. John called the people to repentance and baptism. Gabriel visited Mary to tell her she would be the virgin mother of God's son (Luke 1:11-38). She gave birth to a baby named Jesus, who had the power to save all humanity through his death. Babies have the power to change your life for good or bad, to bring joy or sorrow. Accepting or rejecting Jesus has the same power. Be wise and seek Him. Those who believe will soon celebrate his birth. Shalom!!
