

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Lord Hear Me!

I have a problem, Lord; it's me! Child, I have an answer; it's me. Lord, the relationship with my spouse is failing! Child, put me in your marriage. O Lord, my child doesn't listen to me! My child, give me your child. Lord, I am drowning in debt! Child, trust in what I tell you to do. O God, this pain is more than I can bear. I have had it for many years. Child, see me on the cross where I bore your pain and allow me to work with you to remove it. Everyone has a problem. They come in various sizes, forms, and degrees of ugliness. Job experienced excruciating pain but never lost faith in God (Job 23:1-17, NKJV). We ask God why he hides from us, and he answers in Psalms 10 and 13. God's grace is sufficient for any problem. His strength comes in our time of weakness (2 Corinthians 12:9). We are only strong enough to live one day at a time. Looking at the past fixes nothing. Looking at the days ahead overwhelms us (Philippians 4:6-7). When life takes you down, rejoice in the Lord. He will lift you (Isaiah 54:1; Psalm 37:4-8; Philippians 4:4). When you are standing on sinking sand, turn away and stand on Jesus the Rock.¹ Instead of looking to others for help, look to Jesus. If Jesus cannot help you, no one can help you.

¹ "On Christ the Solid Rock I Stand," Edward Mote, 1834.

Shalom!!

Love Life Ministry, Inc.

Touching People with the Healing Power of God's Love[©]

Scripture quoted or referenced is from The Holy Bible, New King James Version, Copyright © 1979, 1980, 1982, 1997 by Thomas Nelson, Inc. Used by Permission. All rights reserved