

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Facing the Future

Facing the Future

What does the future hold for me? This is a question everyone asks, from childhood to adulthood. Students with medical degrees face board certification. Will I make it? Law school graduates face bar exams. Will I pass? Accountants desiring certification in public accounting face CPA exams. Will I be a CPA? The process continues for teachers, mechanics, heating/air conditioning technicians, nurses, commercial truck drivers, executive chefs, and others. We all face something unforeseen in our future. What people neglect for lack of knowledge or apathy is the most important of their lives—Jesus is their key to a truly successful future (Isaiah 5:13 NKJV, Hosea 4:6). God has given every person a purpose. It does not matter whether we know the purpose and fulfill it or work at our own; whatever we do, we are most successful when we do it with Jesus (John 15:5). With Jesus, we can face tomorrow without fear of failure (Isaiah 41:10). However, it is when we are fulfilling the purpose God has for our lives that we are most satisfied and successful. How has your future turned out so far? Are you happy with it, or are you struggling to find satisfaction? If you embrace Jesus, he will satisfy you (John 4:14-21). Jesus is God's first purpose for our lives. When we accept him, God shows us the work he wants to do in us and through us. Shalom!!
