

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

Doubt and Do Without!

We doubt something because we lack knowledge, are apathetic, or are afraid. Any of these factors are dangerous toward accomplishing something successfully, but the greatest is fear. We can have the knowledge to do something but be afraid to try. Fear can bring apathy, which renders us mentally paralyzed. The antithesis to these factors is faith, hope, and love. The greatest of these is love (1 Corinthians 13:13, NKJV). We stand at the threshold of celebrating the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Instead of calling sixty thousand angels to protect him, he allowed men to arrest him because he loves us (Matthew 26:53). He stood at a whipping post, allowing men to shred the flesh from his back, then gave his life on a cross out of love for us (Matthew 27:26-28; John 19:28-30). The power of love through the Holy Spirit raised Jesus' dead body to life, giving us faith (Romans 8:11). Faith is the evidence of what we hope for (Hebrews 11:1). Jesus ascended bodily to God, his Father, to give us new life (2 Corinthians 5:17). When we believe in and accept a relationship with Jesus, we receive a new life, his help to do things successfully, and a life of good health. When we doubt, we will do without. On this Resurrection Day, will you believe and receive, or doubt and do without? The choice is yours.
Shalom!!
