

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

One Pair of Hands¹

An invisible pair of hands created an ever-expanding universe and hung the sun, moon, and stars. The same pair of hands created birds, flowers, trees, and all we see, smell, taste, and touch, and those we do not. Those hands formed the first man and woman with a command to be fruitful and multiply (Genesis 1 & 2, NKJV). When the world became corrupt, that pair of hands washed it clean and hung a rainbow promise not to do it again (Genesis 8:21-22). Those hands guided Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob toward a Messiah, and made David strong to bring Him forth (Genesis 22:1-19; Luke 3:31). Then the pair of hands became flesh to feed tens of thousands with a little bread and fish (John 6:1-14; Matthew 15:32-38). The hands touched a leper, making him clean and whole (Mark 1:40-42). Then those hands created eyes from dirt and spit so that a man born blind could see (John 9:1-7). The same hands held children, encircling them with love (Luke 18:15-17). That same pair of hands touched a small dead girl, restoring her to life (Mark 5:21-43). This one pair of hands that created, healed, and fed stretched out to be nailed to a cross. Raised between heaven and earth, those nailed hands paid for all our sins (John 12:32; Luke 23:26-33). There has never been a better pair of hands. Allow those hands to touch your spirit today, making you a new person in Christ Jesus, for it is the touch of the Master's hands (2 Corinthians 5:17).

Shalom!
