

A light to my path. Psalm 119:105

It is Well!

Nearly a week ago, my day began with a feeling of irritability. That feeling grew by the hour until Sandra, my wife, reminded me that all was well. A Shunammite woman's son died from sunstroke. She did not blame her husband, but said, "All is well." When she found Elisha, who asked if her son was well, she said, "It is well." Through the power of God, Elisha discerned the son was dead. He returned to the woman's home with her and raised her son to life (2 Kings 4:18-37, NKJV). Saying "It is well" aloud is a prayer that replaces irritability and anxiety with peace, settling the heart and mind (Philippians 4:6-7). Saying "It is well" is a refuge of God's peace for us (Psalm 46:1-3). Horatio Spafford's four daughters died at sea in a shipwreck. His wife was among the few survivors. He received a telegram from her saying all their daughters were gone. His return message to his wife was, "It is well." Three years after the death of his daughters, the poem he wrote to comfort himself and his wife became a hymn, "It is Well with My Soul."¹ When Satan makes you irritable, turn the fire hose of "It is well" on the flames and feel the peace of Jesus put them out. God works all things for our good when we are his children (Romans 8:28). Accept Jesus today and enjoy days of "It is well."

Shalom!!

¹ The Story Behind: It Is Well with My Soul, Hymncharts

Love Life Ministry, Inc.

Touching People with the Healing Power of God's Love®

Scripture quoted or referenced is from The Holy Bible, New King James Version, Copyright © 1979, 1980, 1982, 1997 by Thomas Nelson, Inc. Used by Permission. All rights reserved