

One Thing Needed!

When we select the best, no one will take it away (Luke 10:42, NKJV). You can live in the same house with the one thing you need the most, and refuse it or be arrogant about it. The wayward son who became prodigal with his forced inheritance refused the one thing needed (Luke 15:1-24). His older, arrogant brother thought himself too important to accept his father's offer (Luke 15:25-31). People today still refuse the one thing needed or reject it out of their arrogance. They live in a self-imposed shadow of death with all its judgments until they cannot handle it anymore. Then they either awaken to their need for righteousness through Jesus or they die. Self-righteousness is a tool of Satan, who showers it on those who refuse Jesus and his righteousness. Satan does not want anyone to be in right standing with God, which is the gift of righteousness (Romans 5:17). Martha, the sister of Mary, thought it most important to serve Jesus an excellent meal. She complained to Jesus about her sister not helping her. Instead, Mary sat and talked with him. Jesus told Martha that she worried and fretted over many things and that Mary had accepted the one thing needed (Luke 10:38-42). Beloved believers, awaken to your righteousness and cast away your frustrations. Dear friends, if you have not accepted Jesus, you are missing the gift of righteousness that can remove the impact of your frustrations and disappointments. Accept him today!
Shalom!!
