

Altogether Lovely!

"His mouth is most sweet; yes, he is altogether lovely." (Song of Solomon 5:16, NKJV). The Hebrew meaning of altogether is wholeness, the totality of all parts. In the same language, lovely means a delightful beauty with moral goodness and emotional connectedness. The substance of Jesus, the Savior of all humanity, imbues these qualities, which have a positive effect on a person. Several spiritually wicked college students spoke satanic curses over another student. Her mind and heart plummeted into a deep darkness of mental paralysis. While her body slumped under heavy darkness, her eyes stared, and her speech became mute. Her father, mother, and older sister patiently spoke God's words of healing, comfort, and encouragement to her for over two years. Jesus' complete loveliness caused the darkness to fade until the young woman came out from it. Now this precious ebony gem of a woman converses with others, smiles, and stands as tall as her petite frame allows with a positive outlook on her future. Beloved friends, allow Jesus to draw you into a relationship with his altogether loveliness (Philippians 4:8). He will reveal his complete loveliness through you; thereby blessing others and yourself (Galatians 5:22-25). Those blessings include restored relationships, recovered health, forgiveness, and a prosperous life (3 John 1:2). Shalom!!
